Exhibitors:

The combination of the conference, the expo and the competition attracts scores of specialists and business-insiders who decide about renovations and investments in residential and commercial real estate. Visitor's profile: housing and commercial property managers, members of housing associations, community resources managers (in municipalities and counties). Your most valuable target - professionally prepared expo visitors ready to talk shop. Targi Kielce ensures the right atmosphere for business meetings: the three exhibition days - Tuesday to Thursday, long networking breaks, attractive expo stands location, time earmarked for touring the expo. These are main advantages of Lokum Expo.

Visitors:

Join the LOKUM EXPO! Expos and conferences - synergy is our main focus. Topics discussed at the event - the real estate management, industry and services-sector most topical issues. Exhibitors are ready to offer advice on even most difficult questions related to renovations and investments in housing and commercial business sector. 2018 - the amended Real Estate Management Act becomes the mandatory law. According to the draft, the professions of real estate manager and broker are reinstated. The act also introduces harsh penalties for exercising professional duties without a licence. The act also introduces the requirement that only entrepreneurs can act in the capacity of real estate managers and brokers. LOKUM EXPO - all about the amended laws.
